OFFICE NO. 30 ANN-ST.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW-YORK, SATURDAY, JUNE 119, 1841.

at No. 30 Ann-street, New-York, And delivered to City Subscribers for One Cent per copy. Mail Subscribers, $4 per assum in advance : otherwise $5.

TO THE ADVERTISING PUBLIC. hithe hope of securing a wide and general Advertising patronage. safavers of our friends will be inserted till further notice at the fol-joing reduced rates, viz: FOR EACH ADVERTISEMENT OF Ten lines or less fover six), first insertion..... Da for each subsequent insertion. 84 50

Do. for Twenty-five insertions, or one month, ti-ments at equally favorable rates, For Five lines, half the above rates; Two lines, one-fourth of esse rates-payable in all cases in advance.

EIGHT DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE. By the Columbia at Boston.

Late and Important from China-Izostilities with the English recommenced-Political Agitation in England-Commercial Depression-News from refused to petition for mercy, and was executed on the 1st.

The Steamship Columnia, Capt. C. H. Judkins, arrived g Boston on Wednesday evening 16th at & past eight o'clock, et passage ever yet made.

The intelligence is varied and important, is relatives on board have gone into mourning, and a day Bogue forts and the factory at Canton. Lloyd's.

age steamer, without fungel, foremast crippled, and very or destruction of Canton. The war has now fairly begun. pled on her deck, which had been mistaken for paddic-boxes now in readiness. by Capt. Arbuthaot. Admiral Sartorius, of the Portuguese The revenue from the Penny Postage in England is increas- the Christians in Europe. hope that she might prove to be the President. In answer revenue of this department will be complete. bein the vicinity of the vessel observed by the Conde de Pal- | within five hours of the metropolis. ma was the Tonnere, which at the latest advices, viz. on the Letters from Bombay, dated May 1, give the following greatest blessing his country has for a long time enjoyed. Istof January, was lying in the Plata, intending to leave in particulars: Much for Martinique

The delay of the Britannia, caused by the accident which

H. A. Wells, Esq. comes out as bearer of despatches from our Minister in London to the Federal Government

GREAT BRITAIN is convulsed with political and Corn-Law gitation. The debate on Robert Peel's resolution of a want f confidence in Ministers had been continued through three sitings, but not yet brought to a decision. Sir Robert led prese the division; and indeed it is now quite apparent that On the 25th ult. Mr. Scholefield gave notice of a resoluton that the extreme sufferings of the industrious classes

The Liverpool Standard of the 4th contains the details of which, and the prisoners, are to be sent to Pekin in cages to undergo the last penalty. The fate of Austruther and the undergo the last penalty. The fate of Austruther and his unfortunate companions appears to be sealed.

Secrage passenger, named Patrick Cahill, the third day after their and the third day after their and the prisoners, are to be sent to Pekin in cages. The Cabinet arrangements have been completed, and the New Ministry is thus composed:—Senor Gonzales, President and his unfortunate companions appears to be sealed.

Captain Elliot, finding that the negotiations had thus been completed, and the New Ministry is thus composed:—Senor Gonzales, President and his unfortunate companions appears to be sealed.

Captain Elliot, finding that the negotiations had thus been completed, and the New Ministry is thus composed:—Senor Gonzales, President and his unfortunate companions appears to be sealed.

Captain Elliot, finding that the negotiations had thus been completed, and the New Ministry is thus composed:—Senor Gonzales, President of the Council and Minister of Foreign Affairs; Senor Senor Senor Infance; Senor Infance; Senor San Miguel Minister of War; Senor Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Council and Minister of Foreign Affairs; Senor Senor Senor San Miguel Minister of War; Senor Senor Senor Senor Senor Senor Senor Infance; Senor Secrage passenger, named Patrick Cabill, the third day after their arrival at Liverpool. The particulars as given in the On the 25th, the Bogue Forts were attacked, and taken estimony of the second mate, are as follows:

We arrived at Liverpool on Sunday night last, and an ther side. Tuesday morning went alongside the Prince's pierhead for ascertained, are believed to have been great. the purpose of docking. I observed the deceased and the prisoner swere taken, who were immediately liberated.

According to the last accounts which reached us to the ressel a second time, and the prisoner caught the decreased lose by the main rigging. He laid hold of the decreased he was a second time, and the prisoner caught the decreased lose by the main rigging. He laid hold of the decreased he was a second time, and the prisoner caught the decreased lose by the main rigging. He laid hold of the decreased he was a second time, and the prisoner caught the decreased lose by the main rigging. He laid hold of the decreased lose by the main rigging is not second time, and the prisoner caught the decreased lose by the main rigging. He laid hold of the decreased lose by the main rigging is not second time, and the prisoner caught the decreased lose by the main rigging. cased by the neck, and I saw him strike him on the back and satisfactory adjustment of all differences.

The deceased turned round and raised both his hands up. East, this is likely to be the most troublesome The prisoner then struck him in the abdomen, and I saw chief, unbuttoned his waistcoat, and found that he was bleeding freely, but did not observe how many wounds he had in his breast. I had him carried but the cabin, and directly after he was taken on shore. The only words I heard pass between the deceased and the prisoner ere those before stated. Cahill was committed on the Coroner's warrant for trial at the assizes, and the witnesses were bond over to appear egainst him in £100 each.

A destructive fire occurred at Birminghan on the 27th ult. It broke out in a large coach manufatory, and destroyed property to the amount of not less than 220,000,

On the night of the 27th ult. the Forest Divisio of Berkshire was visited by one of the most terrific thunder and hail storms which this country has ever witnessed. Sutters honestly. many of which were found under the sofas half an hour at, r. ward, as large and nearly as hard as murbles. In root, where the windows had been left open, the chair werd teas are up from 64 Spanish dollars to St and 9.

thrown down, the beds drenched with hail stones, and the Will be published every morning, (Sundays excepted.) floors covered with ice and glass. After raging in this awful the city is doomed to the flames if we spare it. manner for about 20 minutes, the storm abated.

Lord Stanley has withdrawn his famous Registration Bill. | our sailors are. The Irish are wide awake for Repeal and Reform. Meetings of 10,000 to 100,000 are held almost daily. They will be out in their might at the coming Election. The anti-Corn-Law agitation and excitement increases

'Cheap Bread' are every where held. Their tonz is ener. tled. getic and confident. petitions in Parliament by Mr. T. Duncombe, from one million and three hundred thousand persons, was but the opening of the summer campaign. mous loan to pay the expenses of their War frolic last year. been concluded. Considere was acquitted, Duclos handed stroyed stockade. over to the tribunals, and Darmes sentenced to death. He win 12 days and seven hours from Liverpool, of which she intelligence that the Emperor had refused to ratify the zier thought it best to send a deputation of Bulgarian us detained five hours at Halifax, making her whole cun- Treaty made by Commissioner Kesken with Plenipoten- Christians to the insurgents, with the strongest assurances eg time but two hours over twelve days. This is the short- tiary Elliot. He further ordered Keshen to be sent in irons of parden and a full redress of grievances. Their Pasha, No tidings of the PRESIDENT had reached England. So after having evacuated all their conquests! Upon this an- to foment than to suppress grievances. peral is the belief that she is lost that most of those who assumement, the British immediately took possession of the Further details are given of the spread of the insurrec-

Important from China.

Hope was temporarily revived at Liverpool on the 2d of General, reinforcements were forthwith ordered to proceed and the foreign consuls into his cabinet. The Bulgarian Use by the report of Capt. Arbuthnot, of the brig Fortitude, to China. So the affair at length assumes a serious aspect; insurgents maintain themselves in the mountains, and meson Buenos Ayres, that on the 27th of May he had seen a and the next Mail will probably bring tidings of the capture nace the Pacha up to the walls of Nisa. The corps of Va-posed undoubtedly to be the President, but the crippled ves- immediately a regular communication between London and bles had broken out in Thrace. At Vienna, it was said sel soon after arrived at Liverpool, and proved to be the ship New-York. A vessel is to start every fortnight from both that Armenia was likewise in a state of revolt. The Temps, London, from Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, which had been crip- cities, to carry the mails, light goods and passengers. Six in its Levant news, states that the insurgents in Candia gled in her foremast by striking an iceberg. She had timber first class steamships, of 1,200 tons each, are stated to be have established a journal called the Free Cretan, which mry, had sent out two small vessels of war, and the British ing. From a statement made by the founder of the present Evoy at Lisbon another, to cruise in search of the disabled system, it appears that the present rate of increase is 14 permamer seen and reported by the Captain of the Conde de cent. per assum, so that if it should continue to increase in Pope has so far overcome his antipathies to the eppenents Palma, as noticed on the arrival of the Great Western, in the the same ratio for the next year, the restoration of the gross of his favorite Don Miguel, as to agree to renew his rehability.

the Secretary of Marine communicated the information that opened from Bristol to London, in July next. The passen- nised. The Duke of Vittoria has thus far, apparently given the sall steamer belonging to the French navy which could gers of the next New-York steamship will, on her arrival, be satisfaction to the majority, as Regent. If he uses his power

It appears that Keshen, the Imperial Commissioner, tho' The London fell in with the Paragon, whose disastrons apparently invested with full powers to treat with us, delayed with the Susquehannah has already been noticed. ed the execution of the treaty which he had concluded throne on condition of receiving an allowance. Joseph with Captain Elliot, till he could obtain the Emperor's confirmation of it. The imperial Cabinet, imperfectly acquainheld her at Habifax, caused considerable uneasiness in Liv- ted with the emergency of circumstances, has rejected the have been received, breathing hostility and defiance to the English, ordering that since the 'rebellious disposition of the in the steamer Iberia, for Genoa, May 28. toreigners has thus become manifest, nothing is left but to exterminate them.' Instead of yielding an inch, by paying exterminate them." down the price of the opium, or granting them a landing place, the Emperor describes the English "as having re-belled against Heaven and opposed reason." "They are," sitings, but not yet brought to a decision. Sir Robert led says he, "like dogs and sheep in their disposition. It is the attack, and was answered by such men as Macaulay and difficult for Heaven and earth any longer to bear with the Sir John Cam Hobbouse. The Tories did not seem eager to English, and both gods and men are indignant at their at Frankfort. conduct." "I have heard," says the emperor, "that for months past they have debauched men's wives and daugh-Pelblundered in proposing a direct vote of want of confi-dence so soon. Even success will prove disastrous to him. ters, made captives, carried away property, built forts, opened water-courses, and set up a counterfeit officer, who issues proclamations ordering the people to pay the duties.

in sleeping or eating I find no quiet."

The blood of the Tartar rulers is excited by these enor madered it an important duty that Parliament should not mittes. Keshen is ordered to be delivered over to the Sparate until something had been done for their relief.

On the 2d inst. many petitions were presented praying the model of war in the least time. The descended from the model of war in the least time. god of war, is to lose his button. Troops have been ormakenness and disgraceful conduct which prevailed at to the Provinces of Honan-Aguezen and Kwei-Chow, to prosections. Several cases of the most open and flagition, ceed immediately to Canton; also flying despatches to Kean-Se, to forward the 2000 troops already stationed at Kan-Chow for Canton. Keshen is ordered to exhort and incre-sed violence. In one of their late attacks Major stimulate the soldiers to advance with valorous daring, and The Liverpool Standard of the 4th contains the details of a Ceromer's inquest on the body of Eli Robinson, a colored to be the foreigners must give up their heads, that the foreigners must give up their heads, that the rebellious foreigners must give up their neads, which and the prisoners, are to be sent to Pekin in cages to undergo the last penalty.' The fate of Austruther and without the loss of a single man killed or wounded on ei-The casualties among the Chinese, though not

According to the last accounts which reached us to the was asking him for some tobacco, and the deceased said he list March, Capt. Elliot intended immediately to proceed to haâ name. The prisoner said, "give it to me or I'll kill Canton, and, it is said, that Keshen had invited the foreign you." The deceased then ran to the starboard side of the consuls to mediate between him and the English. Thus fell sed, and the prisoner followed him. I did not observe to the ground all the flaming assurances of Capt. Elliot, that the negotiations were proceeding most auspiciously.-

Of all the wars in which we have been engaged in the

The circumstances which have transpired cannot there bat the prisoner than a knife in his hand. I ran to his assistance, but before I could get to him the prisoner struck the fore all to produce a radical change throughout the whole empire. Had the Emperor quietly acceded to the treaty, the deceased again with the knife, two or three times, in his breast. I got hold of the prisoner and made him fast to the main rigging, by a rope. The deceased was sitting at the lefty pretensions of the Tartar dynasty, and the exclusiveness of the Cabinet, might have appeared in the eyes time main rigging, by a rope. more extended operations. We must make up our minds either to give up China and its trade altogether or force the Emperor into concessions at the cannon's mouth.

The Bombay Gazette concludes by severely condemning the government at home for its want of foresight and bad management of the Chinese question. It is of opinion that nothing effective can be done in the campaign which is about to open.

Letters from Singapore, of the 19th March, received by the ships John Adams and David Mlacolm, state that, on the 25th of February, the Island of Chusan was given up to the Chinese. These ships bring to Calcutta the Bengal volunteers, Captain Elliott, in his wisdom, having ordered their return when he was flattering himself Keshen was behaving honestly. The other transports with the European troops were burst open and the rooms covered with pieces o ice, on board went fortunately to Hong Hong, where they will be required; whether the volunteers are to go or return to Macao was not yet decided.

Chinese goods have risen considerably in price, and jung

there are 200,000 Chinese starving in the neighborhood for Letters from Macao to the 26th of March, state that Canton was almost deserted. The Hong merchants remained on the spot, but said that the people were afraid to trade whilst the men of war remained by the river. The Chinese at Canton believed that no traffic of importance could daily throughout England. Immense meetings in favor of be carried on until the whole question was definitively set-

A letter from Randon of the 18th of March, published in etic and confident.

The Chartists are as active as ever. The presentation of officer leaves this day for Calcutta, and is said to be the bearer of a letter to the governor of Bourbon and the King France from his Eurmese Majesty.

daily interviews and audiences with his Majesty.

No symptom of receiving a British resident at Court had FRANCE is tranquil. The Ministry is negotiating an enor- yet been exhibited by his Majesty. The turn that affairs may take after the court know our situation in China remains to be seen. The palace is rising as if by magic,

The news of the Bulgarian insurrection created a great alarm in the Turkish capital, and at first the Sultan proposed sending Hussein Pasha the destroyer of the Jannisa-The overland Mail from India had reached London with ries, to quell it. But after some deliberation the Grand Vito Pekin to answer for his truckling to the 'outer barbarians.' who commands the expedition against Candia, is a man of He will grant them no terms save on their abject submission, a most cruel and ferocious disposition, and is more likely tion in the Christian provinces of the empire. Samos as resultes on total and good and an extra man named Coopera, and gave nim $250. The next has been designated for the estillement of the insurance at day the men who were on their way to Long's in search of cutta from Canton, and, after a conference with the Goversor vernor had been compelled to admit the Christians of note lenzas, in Thessaly, was daily receiving fresh recruits. In hrge paddle-loxes, steering N. N. E. This was at first supproposes to make an appeal in behalf of their cause to all

FORTUGAL.

This country presents little matter for observation. The tions with the Court of Lisbon. An apostolic delegate kas was application from the Parisian Agent of the Company, The whole line of the Great Western Railway will be been appointed, and the Portuguese Envoy formally recogmoderately, and acts with firmness, he may become the TTALY.

Negotiations are said to be still going on at Home to induce Don Miguel to resign his pretensions to the Portuguese the treaty and determined on war. Four imperial edicts hend will become the rendezvous of all the adherents of purpose on the 15th of May. Its arrival therefore may be

The British Charge d'Affaires to the Germanic Confede- on the 7th of August, for the hearing of appeal causes. ration has fled from Frankfort with an English lady of distinction-a married woman and the mother of eleven children! The scandalous affair had caused a great sensation

The government are about to form an Austrian corps of observation on the frontier of Turkey in consequence of the Ossification or some foreign substance had so completely insurrection, which is becoming universal throughout the European provinces of the Turkish empire. BITSSIA.

The British Ambassador at St. Petersburgh has had his final audience of the Emperor, and is about to leave his post

Letters from Russia state, that with the beginning of the spring the hostility of the Circussians recommenced with General Backuin, a much esteemed Russian officer, was killed by a musket shot.

Garcia, Minister of Marine; Senor Alonzo, Minister of

A strong opposition is about to be formed in the Chamber Deputies against the new administration.

Madam Mina, the relict of the Spanish General, has been appointed governante of the Queen and her sister. has been done in compliance with an earnest entreaty of their mother, the Ex Queen Christma.

THE MARKETS.

The London and Liverpool markets are represented to be home trade being almost the exclusive buyers, and they purchasing to the extent only of their actual wants; indeed, never were commercial affairs in a more gloomy and depressed condition than in the beginning of this month; manufacturers have excessive stocks of goods on hand, and complain loudly of the want of demand to carry them off; deo of the very low and unremunerating prices; great dis tress consequently prevails in all manufacturing districts At present there is little prospect of improvement, confidence having been so generally shaken, that serious calamities will befull many of the large firms, especially in the

The silk trade in the neighboring town of Manchester is considerably worse than it was a month ago; weavers of many sorts have orders to be without work one month. The machinery, in a great number of factories, within ten miles of Manchester, is in operation only four days per week

LONDON, June 3.—In the Commercial Markets the chief attention of the merchants is directed to the state and prospects of the Ten trade, which has been put again into a state of feverals excitement by the news received from China of the recommencement of hostilities with the Chinese. There has not however, been so great an amount of actual business done as might have been sufcipated. In fact, the dealers have not yet got over the loss they were compelled to incur by the previous unfavorable intelligence from Canton. Holders are not disposed to sell at the present advance which is about 3d $\phi$. The stock on hand is not equal to a year's consumption, and therefore LONDON, June 3. - In the Commercial Markets the chief attention of

An American gentleman, lately from Canton, tells us that | prices may be expected to go bigner. The deliveries for home con-

ments, the effect of which, so unexpected, will be a likether reduction of price. The market is completely glutted.

June 2.—There has been a very moderate extent of business done in Courn to-day, the sales being scarcely 1550 bags, all to the Trade comprising 50 Permans at $1 \( \pi \) of $i\) d. 20 Maranhams, $1 \( \pi \) 7 \( \pi \) d. 20 Egyptians, $6 \( \pi \) 16d. 300 Serats, $2 \( \pi \) 5d; and the rest Ausricans, chiefly from $5 \( \pi \) 16d. Prices are without much perceptible alteration, although itse tone of the market is decidedly heavy and fit.

June 3.—The market is still without improvement either in demand or prices; the business to-day limited; sales only 1500 bags—con sixti c principally of American, but including 10° Surat at 4 \( \pi \) 4 \( \pi \) 4.

And 100 Brazil, $1 \( \pi \) 5 \( \pi \) 5.

SCOUNDRELISM EXPOSED -The Louisville Messenger con Scientism Exposed — The Louisvile Messenger contains an account of the recent discovery of an extensive scheme of counterfeiting and other villagy which has been seen that the counterfeiting and other villagy which has been the property of the seen of counterfeiting and other villagy which has been the property of the seen of the property of the seen of counterfeiting and other villagy which has been the property of the seen of the property o The trial of Darmes and his confederates by the Peers had | though there is yet no preparations for rebuilding the de- fortunately broken up by the summary arrest of the prominent actors. It seems that on the night of the 26th ult, the store of Mr. Chance in Bowling-Green, Ky., was robbed of goods and money to a sonsiderable amount. Suspicion rest for ed on an old man named Long, who had long been suspected of general rascality. His views was immediately searched, and although only one article of Mr Chance's goods was found, valuable property of all descriptions was found concealed on the premises. While the search was gaing on, says the Messenger, an old clock was opened, from which rolled out nearly half a bushel of bank notes, of divers denominations, from 3's, 5's, 10's and 20's to 50's, principally on banks New-York. On the same day of the robbery, a man from Owen country by the name of Sullivan, purchased a horse from a man named Cochran, and gave him $250. The next the stolen goods, stopped at Cochran's house, and desired to see the money he received for the horse he had sold; it all proved to be counterfeit. Cockran protested that he thought the money was good, and proposed to go in quest of Sullivan, whem they found at Spencer. Sullivan declared that he would turn State's evidence, and let out the whole secret, which he did, and his disclosures show to what an extent these schemes of villany had been carried. Cochran fled. and has not been taken-but Long, his two sens and another scoundrel Phipps are still in jail, awaiting their trial at the next Court. Sullivan is held in custody, who will reveal more of this nefarious transaction, and it is said will expose some names that have heretofore held a respectable standing

BUSKER HILL MOSUMENT .- We are glad to learn that this magnificent structure is rapidly progressing. Mr. Sawage, the contractor, commenced his work about the 18th of May and has hid eight courses of two feet eight inches depth. One week is generally consumed in laying a single course The hight of the monument is now something more than 190 feet. When finished it will be 220 feet high. The two upper courses forming the apex will consist each of a single block of granite, the upper one weighisg between three and

IF The Boston Daily Advertiser says that GREENOUGH's Statue of Washington was to have been received on board noa, has hired there a splendid palace, which many appre- the ship Sea, Capt. Delano, which was at Leghorn for that

> The Court for the Correction of Errors on Thursday resolved to hold a term at the City of Buffalo, commence

TP The army worm has made it appearance, and is make ing great havoc among the crops near St. Louis, Tennible Death .- Mr. James Dunbar, aged 75 years died in New-Gloucester, in this State, April 12th. The dis-case which terminated his earthly existence was an obstruction of the passage leading from the throat into the stomach. Ossincation or some toroign substance had so completely closed the alimentary conductor that no kind of nourishment could possibly be taken, and consequently life departed for want of its sustaining nutriment. For the last ten days of his existence he was unable to swallow the least sustenance whatever. Herrible as it may be to relate, he actually died [Portland Argus.

CHEAP AND FASHIONABLE GOODS. DRY GOODS AT COST PRICES.

THE Subscribers, being desirous to reduce their stock of Spring and Summer Goods as low as possible, previous to making purchases for the Fail trade, will from this date up to the first of August ax , sell their Goods at COST.

Their stock is earge, and having been mostly purchation at very lew prices, it is the best opportunity ever offered to Ladies who wish to supply themselves with fascionable Goods.

Among their stock may be found a splendid assortment of RICH SILKS of the latest styles, a great variety of PRINTED LAWNS, Bombazines, Prints, &c. Also a large lot of Gambroons, Crape Camblets, and Lanen Drills for Gentlemen's wear. GERARD & KLINCK, 167 Spring-st.

JOHN H. DINGMAN. (formerly BANKS & DINGMAN.)

301 Grand-st. corser of Orchard—Would call the attention of the Ladies to his spleudid assortment of rich Silks of the latest styles—
He has just received.

just reverved ense of beautiful satin colored striped Gro de Afrique, pieces do blue-biack Gro de Afrique, striped, case rich Chene Silks, beantiful patterne, do very rich figured de, all colors and styler, cases plain black and blue-black do, from 4s to $1.

3 do plain mode colors.
N. B.—Rick Scarfs, Silas, black and blue-black, and colored. Also, beautiful assortment of Scarls.
JOHN H. DINGMAN, 1e17
No. 361 Grand-st. cor of Orchard. (LAMBROONS AND SUMMER STUFFS.-Clease

Call at JOHN H. DINGMAN S. and make choice from a larg assortment. Also, Castamere, Valencia, Marseilles, and plain and fig ired Satir Vestings. N. R.—Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinetts, Moleskins Cords, Linea Brills, and plain Linea. JOHN H. DINGMAN. N. B.—Hosiery, Gioves, Linea, Cambrick and Silk Pocket Hand kerchiefs, Cravats, &c.

kerchiefs, Cravats, &c.

SELAWELS: SELAWES:—The subscriber, JOHN H. DINGMAN, (formerly of the firm of Banks & Diagman,) has just opened a beautiful assortment of Shawls, at the well-known establishment,
(1) Grand-st., corner of Orchard, where he still hopes to receive that 201 Grand-st, curves of Orchard, where he still hopes to receive that patronage which the public have extended to the firm. He is determined that nothing shall be wanting on his part to please all who favor sim with a call. Satin, Damask, plain black Silk, Cushmere, Brochia, Embroidered Thibet, Merino, &c. a great variety.

N. B.—Bick Farasols, cheap.

101 M. DINGMAN, pet7

No. 301 Grand-st. cor. of Orchard.

No. 301 Grand-st. cor. of Orchard.

JOHN H. DINGMAN.

PRINTED LAWNS AND CALICOES.—The Subscriber (formerly of the firm of Basks and Diagman) offers, at the old Stand, 301 Grand-st. cor. of Orchard, a beautiful collection of Lawns, and French, English, and American Calicoes, at very low prices. Please call and examine for yourselves. call and examine for yourselves.

JOHN H. DINGMAN, 301 Grand-street, cor. Orchar

N. B.—Plain and Figured de Lumes: also, Bombazines, Taglionis, Damasa Table Covers, Linen Table Dispers. Domestics, Bleached and Unbleached, a great variety of every price. jel7 and Unbleached, a great variety of every price.

DEPOT OF FANCY BRESS ARTICLES.

SILK AND SATIN SCARFS, AND CRAVATS, in a great variety of opatterns. Chosson & Co.'s superior GLOVES, &c. received by recent arrivals, are offered for sale at reasonable prices, by WM. T. JENNINGS, late Lynde & Jennings, 222 Broadway, [American Hotel.]

Gentienen may in future depend upon finding at this establishment a good Assortment of Fancy Dress Articles, which will be offered at such prices as must offer inducements to purchasers in view of the usual charges for the same style of goods.

VOL. I. NO. 61.

A SPLENDID ASCORTMENT of French and American Paper Hangings and Borders, for sale at the United States Paper Hang-ing and Band Box Warehouse, 65 Canalistreet, near Broadway, Nea-York

BLUE BLACK SCARFS of the finest quality, 3; yards

I long, at $2.75. Shakers' Hoods, all sizes, at 2s each. Paper Hangings, a variety at 1s per s

NEW AND CHEAP CARPET WAREHOUSE.

Persons about purchasing, would do well to call and examine be fore buying elsewhere. Goods sent to any purt of the city free expense.

E. DAKIN & CO, 159 Chatham 5.

Directly opposite Mulber N. R.—The largest Block Letter Sign in New-York is over the SHAWLS BLACK NETT LONG SHAWLS BENNETT &

D RHODES, 405 Broadway, will open this morning 4 cartons extra rich Black Nett Long Shawis, new style, which they will sell at the TRANSPARENT ITALIAN WINDOW SHADES.
OLIVER W. WOODFORD has just received a few more cases Transparent Italian Window Shades, an entirely new style, and painted in every variety of landscape scenes and seroll border. Families intending to purchase any kind of Window Blinds this spring will find hand some Transparent Window Shades from $2 to $10 per pair.
N. B. About 150 pairs at the low price of $2 per pair.
jel-tf 66 Catharine-street.

HOSTERY -50 dozen White at 1s a pair, 75 dozen at 1s 3d, and 100 dozen at 1s 6d a pair, very fine, and so on in proportion to the finest quality, at half the usual prices. Ladies wishing the cheapest Stockings, white, black and unbleached, ever offered in New-York, will obtain them at THOMPSON'S Cheap Store, 120 Grand-street, near Broadway.

DRY GOODS CHEAP.

AT THE MECHANICS CHEAP STORE, 59 Houston st. a general assertment of Dry Goods may be obtained a lettle cheaper than they are usually bought. Brown and bleached Sheetings, good quality and yard wide; 6d, 7d, and 8d Calicoes; fast colors from 6d to 12cts. Other goods very low. Lancest call at 59 Houston st.a few doors below Union Market and buy Dry Goods cheep.
jel4 2w. R. DOWIE.

JUST RECEIVED-A large assortment of Marseilles Quilts Counterpanes, of every size and quality, at very low price HOPPER, MORSE & CO. 219 Greenwich-st.

CAMBROONS, CRAPE CAMBLET, Moleskins, Saturetts Chichs, Linea Drill, and all kinds of Summer Stuffs cheap a THE MECHANICS STORE, No. 59 Houston st. jel4 2w* BLACK SILKS, heavy and high lustre , together with Blue D Black, in superb fabrics, this morning receives from Auctina, and will be sold at a bargain, as it is B. THOMPSON'S jel? Auction Goods Store, 120 Grand-st. near Broadway

CLOTHEING TO EXCHANGE FOR REAL ESTATE.—A bill of winter clothing to the amount of fifteen hundred or two thousand dollars, consisting of Coats, Vests, and Pantaloons can be exchanged for Real Estate or leasehold property in this City or suburbs by addressing Clothing, this office, giving the location and description of property to be exchanged.

D. & J. AMES'S RULED CAP AND LETTER PAPER, in PRENCH VASES, CIRANDOLES, &c.-A large as market, for sale at low prices by MERRITTS & PAGE, No. 100 BI.EACHING POWDER.-100 casks Boyes' celebrated ching Powder, for sale by PERSSE & BROOKS, 61 Liberty-street. DOMESTIC MUSI.INS-10 bales, yard wide and heavy at 6d per yard, by B. THOMPSON, 120 Grand-st., The first Dry Good Store from Broadway.

MODE COLORS in heavy Pot de Sna, selling at 4s 6d per yard, by B. THOMPSON, jel? At his Silk and Shawl Store, 120 Grand-st, near Broadway. HOUSE TO LET.—Part of a House to let to a small and genteel family—furnished or sufarmished. Inquire at 93 "White-st. jel4

White-st. FT—A School Room, twenty by forty feet, plea-in Second st. between Avenues C. and D. Inquire of Adam C. Leach, 171 E-sex st., or of N. Miller, 16 Avenue C. Also Church Laupys and a Canadelier for sale. Inquire as above.

A store and back-room on the corner of Grand and Elm atreets, in the large building. Rent moderate to a good tenant ATO HOTEL-KEEPERS, CAPITALISTS, hold acc. I nat delightful and unique Summer resert, surpassed by no place in the vicinity of New-York for beauty of scenery, &c., known as LAKEVILLE HOUSE, Success Pond, attasted on Long Island, swenteen with from D. Long Island, seventeen miles from Brooklyn, and within two miles of the Railroad, is offered for sale on low terms, which will be made accommodating to the purchaser; or it will be let to a suitable tenant. The House is spacious, and within a few rods of the Lake, with good out buildings, barns, stone ice-house, &c., with about ten acres of land well stocked with fruit-trees. Its commanding and healthy situation offers every inducement to boarders and visiters; and the property, in the hands of an enterprising man, cannot but prove a profitable investment. For farther particulars inquire of jets law. J.M. SMITH, cer. of Fulton and Water-sts. N. Y.

FOR NALE.—A pleasant situation at Far Rockaway, containing between 5 or 6 acres of land situated at the junction of the Rockaway Turnpike and Rockaway Road, being 14 miles from the City of New-York, and 2 from Rockaway Beach. On miles from the City of New-York, and 2 from Rockawar Beach. On the premises is a good dwelling house, Barn, and other outbuildings; a good well of water near the door, from which the cattle are watered by leaders to the Barn-yard. The place has been set out in worked Peach and other fruit trees. If not sold, the House, Barn and Gar-den will be rented to a good tenant.

Also, another place at Far Rockaway, containing about 5 acres of land, 2 of which is cleared, one set in worked Peach trees, the resmain-der in wood.

der in wood,
Also, the sloop Hunter, of Far Rockaway, 9 or 10 tons. For further particulars apply to jolfs 2w*
JOHN L. NORTON, Jr. Par Rockaway,

TO LET-A Store in Barclay-street, near the ferry-a cood situation for a Clothing Store. Also, the Basement No. 66 Catharine-st. For particulars inquire at No. 11 Lispeand-iel7 lw.

TO LET.

The third story of the rear building No. 29 Ann-street. It one of the best Rooms in the city for a Printing office, or any light business, being lighted on three sides. Rent $150. Apply to a29 if

H. GREELEY, or J. WINCHESTER, 30 Ann-st.

The splendid Basement Rooms in the Merchants' Exchange, corner of Wall and Hanover-streets. Apply to Mr. Pearson, office of the Company, corner Hanover and Exchange Place, or to al20 tf. J. WINCHESTER, 30 Ann-street.

FOR SALE—A farm consisting of 140 acres, at Smithtown, L. L. adjoining the village of Commac. The buildings are large and commedious and in good repair. There are on the farm a great number of fruit trees of different kinds, the land suitably divided into convenient quantities by wood fences, well watered and abundance of wood. It is within a querter of a mile of the Post Office, Church, School, &c. Terms, $4,000; one half can remain on beed and mortgage—Possession and perfect title can be immediately given. Apply to the owner on the premises, or to JOSEPH WEED, 50 Division—street, New-York.

FOR SALE—Or exchange for productive City Property—A Farm of 53 acres, situated in Huntington Township, L. J. 3 miles from Northport, from which a steamboat piles to and from New-York twice a week. Good buildings, good water, &c. &c. For full particulars inquire of E. W. WOOD, 81 Rivington-street.

BY SPECIAL APPOINTMENT.

JOSEPH GILLOTT,

PEN MANUFACTURER TO THE QUEEN.

CAUTION.—The high character of these Pens has induced the attempt, on the part of several disreputable makers, to practice a fraund, not only upon Mr. Gillott, but also upon the public. An inferior article bearing the misspelled name, thus, Gillott, omitting the final T., a now in the market. It can readily be detected by its unfinished apportance, and the very common style in which it is put upobserves, the genuine Pessa are all marked in full—" Joseph Gillott's Patent," or " Joseph Gillott, warranted;" and that each gross bears a fac simile of his signature.

21- Gillott The above may be had, wholesale, of jeld HENRY JESSOP, 71 John-41 cor. of Gold.